

NOTE: Some of the contents of the NEWSLETTERS are not 'news'; such as readings that have already been handed out. However, they are still included so that both you and we have a complete record in our files.

READING ASSIGNMENTS:

James MORRIS, "The Final Solution, Down Under." Horizon, 14, No.1 (Winter 1972), 60-71.

Godfrey MORRISON, ERITREA AND THE SOUTHERN SUDAN; aspects of some wider African problems. Minority Rights Group, Report No.5, New Edition, May 1976. pp.9-28.

Hervé SAVON, DU CANNIBALISME AU GENOCIDE. Paris: Hachette, 1972. Chapter One. Transl. by Roger M. Robillard.

ANNOUNCEMENT:

Professor Storrs McCall from the Philosophy Department of McGill University will give a guest lecture and lead a discussion on the events in the Sudan that are summarized in the above reading assignment by Godfrey Morrison on Wednesday, January 28th in class.

Professor Norman Cohn will visit Concordia University in the middle of February. He will give four different talks that are described in some detail in a separate announcement that you are receiving together with this issue of the NEWSLETTER.

ASSIGNMENT:

DUE: February 11th

TASK: To write an abstract of chapters IX-XII, pp.151-205 in: Hannah ARENDT, Eichmann in Jerusalem; a report on the banality of evil. NY: Penguin Books, 1977 (First Ed. 1963)
NOTE that we are not handing out copies because the book is readily available.

BIBLIOGRAPHY of items dealing with typologies:

Raphael LEMKIN, see NEWSLETTER 1

Vahakn N.DADRIAN, see NEWSLETTER 1

U.N.Convention, see NEWSLETTER 2

Hervé SAVON, see above

Helen FEIN, Accounting for Genocide. NY: Free Press, 1979. Esp.Ch.1.

~~Jack Nusan PORTER, "What is Genocide." Paper that we shall distribute next week.~~

Irving Louis HOROWITZ, Taking Lives, which should be in the bookstore.

Kurt JONASSOHN, unpublished summary of class presentation: this typology is based on what we analyze as the major intent of the genocidal society.

1. The creation of terror
2. The elimination of threat
3. Economic enrichment (or substitution)
4. Elimination of deviation from belief systems or ideologies
5. Implementation of race theory
6. Satisfaction of bloodthirstiness